Something Different this Sukkot

Something Different This Sukkot

B'nai Tikvahites will have the opportunity to build their own sukkot this year - with plenty of guidance from our own master builder, Mordecai Higgins, and thanks to a S.E.E.D. Grant from Cincinnati's Jewish Federation.

Rabbi Donna will lead a study session focusing on the halacha (Jewish law) of what makes a sukkah kosher.

You'll also learn about the historical significance and modern transformations that keep Sukkot called THE Festival (Hebrew:heh-Chag).

There will be three parts to this program and the sessions will take place on the following dates:

Session One

August 15th

History of Sukkot
Sukkot Today
Practice Building

Session Two

September 19th

Building your own sukkah in your yard (Mordecai will be on call from September 19-21)

Session Three

September 22nd

A progressive celebration in each sukkah

We're looking forward to this year's celebration and encourage your participation.

When you come to the first session on August 15th, you'll see how easy it is to build your own sukkah.

We'll need to know if you'd like your own sukkah building kit by August 16th so we can order it.

Please note that supplies are limited - so "first come, first served"
